

If any individuals or organizations are looking for ways to help The Quinn House, we can offer a suggestion. We are in the beginning of the yearly summer canned vegetables and fruit drought. If any Individuals, families, or your organization would like to donate canned goods or arrange a canned food drive for your neighbor's benefit it would be very helpful. As always, we are thankful for the communities support in our mission of helping those in need.